Guess, then let the writer reveal themselves and tell the story.

A TORMEY THANKSGIVING TABLE TRADITION

The Gratitude Bowl

You need: a bowl, slips of paper, pens, and a guess sheet for each player.

1. Everyone writes two or three things they're thankful for, one per slip. Keep them secret.
2. Be specific. "My dog Biscuit," not "my pets."
3. Fold the slips and drop them in the bowl.
4. Someone draws a slip and reads it aloud. Everyone writes down a guess.
5. The writer reveals themselves and tells the story behind it. Check your guess.
6. Pass the bowl and repeat. Most correct guesses wins, but the stories are the real prize.
